New Year's Reception At Cobbleigh Library—Meeting of the Art Circle at Speedwell—Socials

The Annual New Year reception at the Cobbleigh library was held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 1, from 3 to 4:30.
The library was very attractive with evergreens and potted plants. The table in the trustees room was arranged for serving tea, and Mrs.
Cree and Mrs. Hutchinson poured, assisted by Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Lyster, Mrs. Lincoln and Miss Thela Powers.
Miss Hills was assisted in receiving by Mrs. J. W. Copeland and Mrs. E.
J. Blodgett. A larger number attended than ever before, and the affair reflected great credit on the Library Committee, who had it in charge.

The Art Circle of the Lyndon Union Club held their first meeting of the year on Friday, Jan. 2, with Mrs.
Theo. N. Vail, at Speedwell Farms.
Sleighs were sent to the Library for the ladies, and about eighteen of the club attended. Mrs. Titcomb, the leader of the circle, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on color and color values. Plans for the winter's work were talked over and parts assigned. The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. M. Campbell on Jan.
13. An informal social hour followed which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Coburn had brought specimens of the rugs, which she has recently made, to illustrate the new industry which she plans to introduce among the women of the State. The State Federation is interested in this project, and has appropriated $50 to help start the business. They hope to introduce a new and distinctive rug which will bear the name, "Vermont Rug," and give paying employment to many of the women during leisure time. The club members here are much interested, and many of them will take up work themselves, while others will give money and influence to further the work.

Mrs. John Nash has gone to Brightlook hospital to have an operation for appendicitis. Her mother Mrs. E. M. Campbell, is keeping house for her during her absence.

last week to West Burke, to visit Mrs.
Rublee's grandmother, Mrs. Cynthia Aldrich.

Fanny Cheney Smith has returned to Hartford, Conn., after spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Cheney, who is quite poorly.

Ray M. Rush of Toledo, Ohio, and Miss Edna Gardyne of Rock Island, P. Q., were married last Wednesday at the Congregational parsonage.
They will live at Orleans, where Mr.
Rush is employed by the telephone company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Spencer spent a few days last week at Whitefield, N.
H., with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Lyster.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wark and children, Jay and Alfred, have been visiting relatives in North Haverhill, N. H.

Walter Davoll of Boston, was in town last week on a business trip.

The Rev. R. H. Moore has returned from his holiday vacation, and occupied the Methodist pulpit as usual Sunday.

Miss Ida Jenkins of St. Johnsbury has been spending a few days with Mrs. Edgar Gorham.

Miss Effie Hunter of Boston, spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no jug-ling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

Royal Baking Powder has been found by the official examinations to be of the highest leavening efficiency, free from alum, and of absolute purity and wholesomeness.

Royal Baking Powder is indispensable for making finest and most economical food.

non, N. H., who has been in the employ of the railroad for 28 years, is coming here to go into business with his brother, A. N. Wetherbee, proprietor of the Novelty Works. He has bought the Curtis Hill house on Main street for himself. Harry Bowman's family, who have occupied the house have moved into the upper tenement of Henry Graves' house, vacated by George Duke, and Duke has moved downstairs into the tenement vacated by Mrs. Philbrick, who has moved into the Webber house on Smith street.

Mrs. W. S. Jeffers is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Walter Sampson in Middleboro, Mass., and on her return home will stop in
